CONVENT MYSTERIES

Sister Angela is an extraordinary nun who adds a detective's skill and keen sense to her religious calling. She's left a turbulent past behind her, even serving a prison sentence where she found faith and received her call.

Marco Ferrari was the youngest, most brilliant detective in Italy. That is, until a professional mistake cost him his budding career.

This strange couple finds themselves side by side conducting criminal investigations in Modena, a beautiful city in the provinces where history, stories and secrets abound.

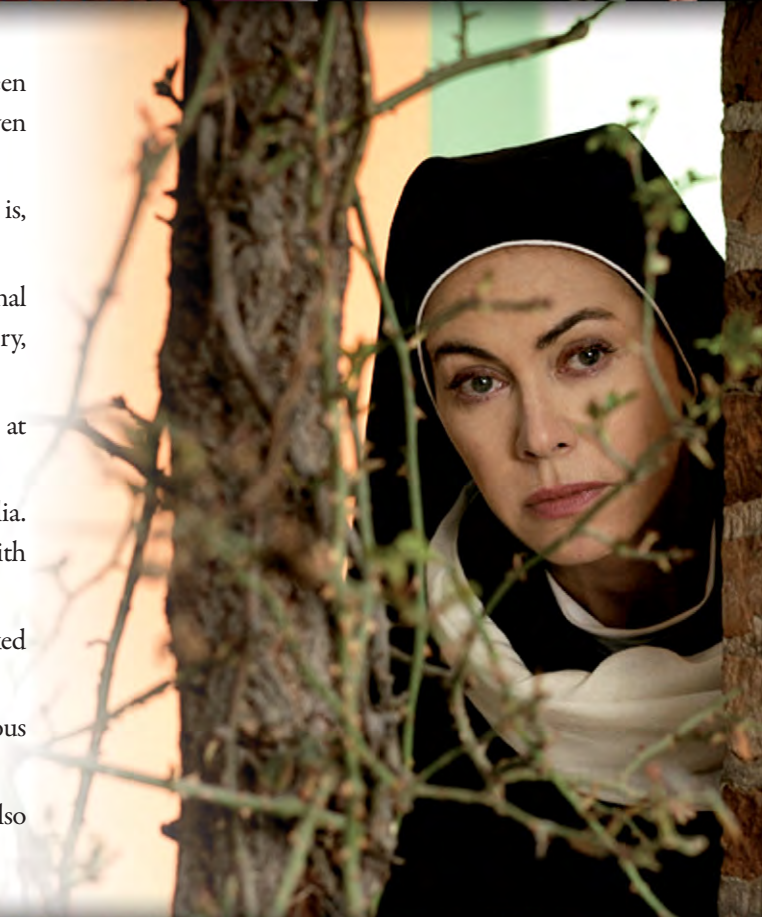

To assist them are three charming girls that live in the boarding house at Sister Angela's convent:

Giulia - a computer genius who has a nine-year old daughter, Cecilia. Exactly nine years ago Giulia had a brief, but intense, relationship with Marco Ferrari...

Margherita - a student of anatomical pathology who shows a marked predisposition for the examination of cadavers.

Azzurra - an irresistible fashion victim who is able to gather precious information due to her charm.

Convent Mysteries is a detective comedy with a streak of mystery that also conveys emotion, love and joy.
