

LUX VIDE PRESENTS

Talent HIGH SCHOOL

What adolescent has never dreamed of stepping onto a stage and displaying his or her talent? Talent High School is the place where these dreams come true. Dancing, singing, acting and fashion are just some of the disciplines taught at this highly exclusive academy where no one needs to be "normal." However, they do need certain calling cards to gain access to it: attendance at equally exclusive schools, courses and experience overseas.

Even though she is an excellent dancer, Sofia is just the daughter of a mechanic on the city outskirts, virtually self-taught and, as a result, is not accepted at the Academy.

And so she pretends to be Allegra De Magistriis, the daughter of a Hollywood producer, born and raised among the spotlights and glitter and who just happens to be Sofia's spitting image.

It isn't easy lying, especially with people who were really born in that world ...

Sofia/Allegra's companions in this new adventure are Bart, the handsome and talented dancer who dreams to work for Ferrari, Marion, the principal's daughter, Greta, a rather extravagant aspiring writer, Greg, a potential fashion designer with the air of a nerd and De Blasi, an eccentric teacher.

Between dual identity and engines, choreography and bolts, Talent High School is a sparkling sitcom for young audiences.

Format: Sitcom 24x20'

Target: Twens and Teens

Directed by: Daniela Borsese

Starring: Alice Bellagamba, Gianluca Vicari,

Katsiaryna Shulha, Emanuela di Crosta,

Romolo Guerreri, Gianmarco Pozzoli,

Francesco Salvi

Year: 2012

Produced by: Lux Vide

Master: HD